

Privacy Policy

The IISD Global Subsidies Initiative (GSI) takes your privacy seriously and is committed to complying with relevant government privacy regulations, rules and policies.

The GSI Website stopfundingoverfishing.com is managed by:

International Institute for Sustainable Development
International Environment House 2
Geneva Switzerland
www.iisd.org

This privacy policy covers all pages on the Stopfundingoverfishing.com Website. It does not apply to pages hosted by other organizations, including those that might be sponsored or hosted by GSI. Those websites may have independent privacy policies.

The GSI website may be used without entering any personal information.

Certain services and features listed below, however, do potentially use personally identifiable information either at your direct request, such as when you join a mailing list, or to provide a technical feature of the website implementation.

COOKIES

We use cookies to track certain elements of your interaction with our website, including user analytics. These cookies are not required, and you may configure your browser to disallow this feature. The cookies are used to potentially customize and improve your experience on our website and to allow us to analyze usage patterns and behaviours to provide the best possible experience.

NEWSLETTERS

GSI manages Stop Funding Overfishing newsletter to provide you with periodic information and updates about our work. We require a valid email address to send these newsletters. You may cancel your subscription at any time.

EXTERNAL SERVICES

We use features and/or services from the following external service providers. They may have their own privacy policies and use your information independently of your use of our website.

- Google Universal Analytics
- YouTube
- Google Advertising
- Mailchimp
- Twitter and Twitter Ads
- Facebook
- Zenbox

CONTACT

Any requests regarding your personal information potentially held by IISD should be directed to webmaster@iisd.org.